1. Chapter 1

Title: Destiny

Disclaimer: Do not own kingdom heart

A/N: So I am writing this story a different way this time. Wasn't happy with the other two times it came out. To clear things up Sora and Riku are 16 years old in 10th grade. Roxas and Axel are 15 years old in 9th grade. Cloud is 18 years old, dropped out of high school in 9th grade to focus on his band. I am still debating if I should start where they all knew each other already or if I should really go in full detail in how Riku and Sora met and stuff. I don't know I am blabbing. Enjoy the first chapter.

Chapter 1

Sora POV

The sound of the school bell is what woke me up as I lift my head up to look at the time, it was only eight o'clock so school was just beginning. I am really not a morning person. The only good thing about this English class was that Riku was in it and he always sat beside me in the back.

"About time you woke up, thought I was going to have to get a drool bucket for you" Riku teased as I stuck my tongue out at him. We have been together for three years now and I seriously don't know what I do without him.

As class started I heard yelling outside as I looked out the window to see Axel outside catching a football. Axel is my brother Roxas boyfriend on and off, its hard to say how many years they have been together. They are both top students in their class and they have a choice to skip high school and go to college, I don't understand why they don't go.

"Sora Heart pay attention" Teacher Snow white said as she tap the chalk on the board.

I looked back at the teacher with a sweat drop "Sorry Mrs White" some students giggle as the teacher went on.

When that classes end, Riku walked with me to my next class "I really hate that we don't have every class together".

"We have lunch and gym to look forward to" Riku took my hand to kiss it gently "Plus we can text each other if we get bored".

I blush as I heard Axel go by saying "Get a room already".

Riku glare at Axel "Get a life".

"I do unlike you two" Axel smirk as he turn the corner.

"Jerk" I mumbled and heard the bell "See you later" I headed in the classroom to sit down. I hated Axel but he was my brother boyfriend so I had to deal with him somehow.

Riku POV

It felt like the longest Friday ever. I kept getting calls from my brother, cloud, that he needed to talk to me but I didn't want to talk to him. Cloud is in a band called the heartless I think it was, they keep changing it so who can keep up. And he was always out practicing, leaving me with my parents Kadaj and Fenris that constantly argued about who knows what.

I only invite Sora over when they're not around.

As the bell would ring for lunch my phone was vibrating as I looked at it to see my brother again and I actually answer "What?".

"Now is that anyway to greet your brother" Cloud said jokingly.

"I am in school what is so important that you need to call me" I walk out of the class to head to the lunch room.

"I am leaving with the band. I don't know when I will be back." Cloud sigh softly "I already told mom and dad. There trying to stop me but I got my stuff and I am leaving now".

Seeing Sora by the entrance of the lunchroom I stop walking not really knowing what to say so I just hung up "My brother is leaving home...".

Sora had wide eyes "Seriously? Did you want to leave to go say goodbye".

"No. He was never around to begin with so it won't make a difference" I took Sora hand "Let's get lunch I am starving" I walk into the lunchroom knowing Sora was worried about me but it was alright, I didn't need my brother.

Roxas POV

"Roxas" Axel caught up with me on the track "Can you stop being mad at me. I can't spend 24/7 with you, I have friends you know".

I looked at Axel "I have friends too Axel but I still make time for you" I continue to walk.

Axel continue to follow "What is this really about? Is it cause I want to leave for college but you don't".

"Its about you not being a good boyfriend" I said annoyed.

"Tch" Axel grabbed my hand to basically drag me behind the bleachers to kiss my lips.

I pushed him back and kicked him in the balls "Kissing me won't change the fact that I am mad".

Axel was on the floor in pain "Dammit Roxas" he watch me walk away.

Getting back on the track, I decided to run now to catch up to my friends Namine and Pence.

"Are you really mad at him Roxas or you just playing hard to get?" Namine asked to drink from her water bottle.

"I just want him to try to make the damm relationship work. He doesn't seem to care half the time" I move hand in hair to feel the nice breeze.

Pence elbow my side gently "Well forget him for right now. Enjoy the spring weather" he smiled trying to cheer me up.

I smirked to push pence aside a little to chuckle softly to run so he wouldn't catch me.

Axel POV

Recovering after what Roxas did to me, I decided to go to his house to talk some more. Of course I was first to arrive and Roxas mother Tifa let me in to have some cookies "Thank you Mrs Heart".

"No problem dear" Tifa smile softly as she went out the kitchen to the living room to turn the tv off.

Roxas than came in to greet Tifa then looked at me "What are you doing here" he walked over to grab a chocolate chip cookie.

"I wanted to talk some more" I notice Sora and Riku coming into the house to look at us "Keep walking nothing to see here".

Riku walked over to grab a cookie "It's not your damm house. Why don't you leave, redheads aren't welcomed".

"Neither are old pervy men" I smirk "Will you ever change that hair".

"I will when you stop being a ass. Oh wait that will never happen" Riku grabbed another cookie before Sora pulled him away.

Roxas shook his head "What will I do with you Axel" he got up to get milk from the fridge to pour himself a glass.

"Accept me for who I am Roxas. I love you and I am not going anywhere no matter what you do" I smirked.

Roxas blushed softly "Idiot" he punched my arm gently.

I grab his hand to pull him close to kiss him in gentle pecks.

Sora POV

When we got upstairs we ended up playing video games, I wanted to distract Riku from thinking about his brother that left. I knew it bugged him.

"Yes won again" Riku smirk at me and then heard his phone ring to see it was his mother "Be right back" he got up to answer the phone in the hall.

I pouted as I never seem to win at the racing games. I turned off the game system to put it away and saw Riku come back in the room "Do they want you home?".

"Yeah. I will text you later okay. Tell your dad I said hi" Riku grabbed his stuff and gave me kiss on the lips and than left.

I got up walking out in the hall to see Axel coming down the hall from Roxas room "Made up with my brother?".

"None of your business shorty" Axel smirk to ruffle my hair.

I had a blank stare, I hated when he touched my hair. I pushed him away "Go home you stink".

"You too but I didn't want to say anything" Axel held his nose to walk away.

I stomp my foot annoyed and was about to go after him but Roxas held me back.

"Call me idiot" Roxas said as Axel wave to leave. He than looked at me "You have to learn to not let him get under your skin. He is my boyfriend".

"Is he really your boyfriend because you two are on and off a lot" I fold my arms.

"We have our way and you have yours alright" Roxas went downstairs as our father Leon came home from work.

"Just in time for dinner Leon" Tifa smiled setting plates on the table.

"Oh good I am starving" Leon put his stuff down to look at Roxas and ruffle his hair then looked at me "Come on down Sora, time for dinner".

I nodded to come down the stairs to stop by the door. I hoped that Riku will be alright.

"Sora" Tifa called me

I close the door and head to the dinner table.

A/N: So the story is in the middle of march in spring. Already you see Roxas and Axel bumpy relationship and how Riku life isn't that great. I am still unsure if I am going to even do yaoi parts in this story cause I suck at writing it out. Anyway hope you like the the first chapter. Tell me in the reviews if this is too slow or fast for a start. until next time~

2. Chapter 2

Title: Destiny

Disclaimer: Do not own kingdom heart

A/N: Just a side note, Fran(Final Fantasy 12) and Kadaj are Riku and Clouds parents, they don't know they're gay. Leon and Tifa are Roxas and Sora parents they know they're gay. Yoko{Gurren Lagann} and Reno are Axel parents, they know he is gay.

Chapter 2

Kadaj pov

Four weeks went passed. It was monday. No phone calls. Not even a letter. My son Cloud, what a troublemaker. He wasn't a troublemaker until he met Zack.

I was sitting in my cubicle at work, done with my work, just waiting for 4:00. It was 3:30.

When I wait I tend to overthink things. My wife was working overtime in the retail world of hers, so I was in charge of dinner.

Riku has been staying out late with his friend Sora. Sora is a good kid so I can't blame him for anything. Its Riku acting out and it's going to have to stop. I have a hunch that he is over Sora house.

Once 4:00 hit, I got out of work and drove right to Sora house. I walked to the front door to knock to see Tifa answering the door "Tifa is my son here".

Tifa nodded to move out the way "Watching tv. Did you want to stay for dinner Kadaj?".

I went in the house "No thank you Tifa. I actually just came for my son. We are going out to eat as a family" I needed to talk to this kid before he runs off like Cloud "So come on Riku".

Riku sigh "Alright" looks at Sora "Text you later". Sora nodded at Riku and then looked back at the tv as Riku got his stuff and went outside and I followed closing the door behind me to head to the car and drove off.

It was silent for a while then Riku broke it looking out the window "It's rare that you come pick me up. Why all sudden?".

"Because after what your brother did I am going set rules and you're going to have to follow. Like no staying out past six. There will be no sleep overs. You are to study every night and if you don't follow these rules than you will have your phone taken away" I stopped at a red light.

"So I am getting punish than for what Cloud did" Riku looked at me "That isn't fair. Mom will agree with me".

"She won't agree with you Riku. She is on my side and she will agree. No more doing what you want" I glared at him.

"Whatever tch" Riku kicked the car floor annoyed than it was silent again. I drove to a little diner and we went in to eat. It was silent, Riku wasn't going to talk to me anymore tonight.

When we got home, Fran was in the kitchen washing the last of the dishes to look at Riku coming in the kitchen to grab water "Hey Riku...how was school".

"Same as every other day mom" Riku took a sip of water and went straight upstairs.

"Now what did you do Kadaaj" Fran grabbed towel to dry her hands and looked at me.

I loosen my tie to look at Fran "I set rules with him. No more late night outs. He will follow them or he will be grounded. Simple as that".

"Not simple, he is going to just get further and further away from us and then run away like Cloud." Fran threw towel on the counter.

"Keep thinking like that and he will fran. Stop babying him and letting him get away with stuff. Decision is final end of discussion" I went upstairs not wanting to argue anymore about it but of course she followed.

"It's not final Kadaaj you can't decide everything" Fran followed me in the bedroom to stand by the entrance of the doorway.

I removed my suit to put in the dirty clothes to be in my boxers "Its done Fran. I am not discussing no more".

"Than enjoy sleeping on the couch" Fran grab the pillow and blanket to put in my arms and pushed me out the room to slam door.

"Fine. I don't care if I sleep on the couch. I won't have to feel your cold feet on my legs!" I walked downstairs to put the stuff on the couch and laid down. I wasn't going to change my mind.

Sora POV

After monday, Riku was sleeping a lot during lunch and gym period. He didn't get much sleep with his parents always arguing. I felt bad that he couldn't escape that. I was sitting on the bleachers at gym with Riku head on my leg, I was twirling his hair looking down at him "Riku gym is almost over".

Riku moan softly to open his eyes "Five more minutes".

I chuckle softly "Fineeeeeee".

"Sora just the person I wanted to talk to" Xion came over "Axel birthday is this weekend and Roxas is doing a secret surprise party, wanted to know if you were coming?".

"Yeah no thanks, where is it anyway so I can stay away" I blinked.

"It's actually at your house. So hopefully you find somewhere to be" Xion giggle to walk away.

Riku sat up "Guess I wasn't invited. Wouldn't want to go anyway" looks at me "What do you say about you sneaking over and sleeping over".

"Hmm it's risky" I smirk "But alright let's do it".

Riku lean forward to kiss my cheek "Can't wait" hearing the whistle he looks back at the people heading into the locker rooms "Did you want to come over now actually. both parents working late today"

"Sure let's go" I got up to rub my butt "My poor butt. Stupid bleachers".

Riku chuckle softly to shake his head to take my hand "Come on silly goose".

School ended at 3:00 and we got to Riku house at 3:30. No one was home. When we got into the house, Riku got snacks and drinks to bring upstairs to his room.

Riku was always clean so his room was perfect compared to my messy room. Clothes all over the place, my mom gave up telling me to clean it up.

Sitting on the bed, I took a sip of my water "So much homework it's ridiculous" took my English book out.

"I know, heard college is harder" Riku sat Indian style on the bed eating chips, he didn't want to do homework at the moment.

"Oh great" I pouted cutely to look at Riku and then crawl over to sit in his lap so he arms could go around me. I always felt safe in his arms and his warmth was so relaxing.

Riku set his chips aside to kiss my neck gently as he held me close

"I got you something" he move a little to grab something from his nightstand and I was curious. When he showed me the box with a ring in it I was blushing deeply.

"It's a promise ring. A promise to be together forever" Riku puts the black with a white trim around it saying 'I love you' inside on my finger.

"I don't need a ring for that. I love it though" I turned to look into Riku eyes "I love you" I kissed Riku deeply to move arms around his neck.

Riku moves to push me back slowly so I could lay down and he could continue to kiss me deeply.

Roxas POV

It was finally Saturday, I had to distract Axel while everyone set up the party so I took him to the mall, movie theater and finally the skate park.

"You didn't have to buy me a gift Roxas" Axel looked down at the the hoverboard he was riding on.

"Wish you stop saying that. It's your birthday," I said as we were getting back to my house "It's not over either".

"What do you mean?" Axel open my door and everyone yelled surprise as he jump back a little "Holy crap".

Xion took a picture "Not easy to hide things from you Axel".

"Definitely not. Now start the music already!" Demyx said as was drinking a beer.

Yoko came over to hug Axel "Have fun. Don't worry me and Tifa won't linger here. We will be out of sight but don't drink too much".

Axel chuckle softly to shake head "Thanks mom" he watch her leave and he went to go party with his friends.

I was mad at Axel, he didn't even bother to thank me for everything but it was probably because he was too shocked. I didn't let it bother me as I went to dance with my friends. I made the mistake of drinking too much though, what I get for holding my feelings in.

"Axel!" I stumble over to him as he was talking to some of his friends "Axel! How you like the party I threw for you!" I was shouting over the music like a idiot.

Axel looked at me "Are you drunk Roxas?" he walked over to touch me but I hit his hand away "What is with you. I am trying to help".

"I don't need your help you big red apple" I said as I heard other people laughing to look at Axel "You didn't even open your gifts!".

Axel grabbed me and pulled me to the back yard outside "You're insane Roxas. I open the gifts there awesome".

"Better than what I got you" I threw my cup down.

"I didn't say that Roxas." Axel move hands to my shoulders.

"You didn't have to you jerk!" I was hitting Axel on the chest "You didn't even say thank you for throwing the party. It was all my idea!".

Axel let me just hit him until I got tired and just buried my face in his shirt. He shook his head "What am I going to do with you stupid" he shook his head to pick me up.

"No I don't want to leave" I mumble not making any sense at all as I was so tired all sudden and passed out.

Cloud POV

The sound of crowd cheering was heard as we got out the bar to head back to our vans. We were in Paris and our next stop is England.

"Hey Cloud I found your phone charger, it was under the seat" Zack said giving it to me as he put his guitar in the case.

"Thanks" I looked over at the diner that was still open late "Let's go get something to eat I am starving".

We went in and I manage to plug my phone in a outlet to turn it on. I had so many calls from my mother and a lot of texts from my brother. I was reading the text and zack could tell I was stressing out.

"Stop worrying Cloud. you manage to get out of there, I am sure your brother can find a way too" Zack sipped his coke

"I don't know how he will get out though. He doesn't work so he can't pay for college. He has a boyfriend too that he can't leave behind. I should send him money" I still cared for my brother still.

Zack move my phone away to look at me "Send him money than if that makes you happy but don't let it get to you. Saix and Xigbar are going to think your not putting hundred percent in the band. We are getting known Cloud."

"I know. we manage to get in the top 20 in the music hit list now and we have a lot of fans. I am so happy we made it this far in four weeks. All the hard worked paid off" I took a fry to eat.

"Exactly" Zack got up to sit next to me to kiss my lips gently "Don't forget I am here for you alright".

"I know" I kissed back then took another fry. Zack helped me actually find the courage to leave and take this tour, it turned out to be really amazing. I just hope my brother can hang on in that hell hole.

A/N: Drama uhh! How do you guys like so far, let me know in the reviews want to know if I am going too fast or just the right pace.

Until next time guys!
